

Practice

Submit a top/base section, load path, connection/disassembly detail, projection calculation and verification requirements.

Material and section

Load path and projection

Connection and verification

Review your work against the criteria. Saving it does not constitute technical project approval.

- Actual build-up identified
- 300 mm under the assumption
- Geometry separated from performance